

Good Faith Service Agreement

"Built on SEED. Rooted in Christ."

This document outlines a mutual understanding between Ekklesia EdTech (Dr. [Your Full Name]) and the partnering institution (hereafter referred to as "the Seminary") regarding instructional design support provided voluntarily and without financial compensation.

1. Purpose

Ekklesia EdTech is a personal ministry dedicated to offering free instructional design and development assistance to Bible seminaries, in service to the global Church and to the glory of God.

2. Nature of Support

All support is:

- ❖ Voluntary
- ❖ Non-binding
- ❖ Offered without compensation
- ❖ Provided as a "helping hand" ministry to strengthen seminary instruction

3. Scope

Services may include:

- ❖ Curriculum or course structure feedback
- ❖ Learning objective alignment
- ❖ Syllabus or content development
- ❖ General instructional design consultation
- ❖ No proprietary or contractual work-for-hire is offered.

4. Ownership

All materials developed on behalf of the Seminary will be released to them for their use. Ekklesia EdTech will not retain any ownership or publishing rights.

5. Limitation of Liability

Ekklesia EdTech offers its services in good faith and is not responsible for any dissatisfaction, institutional outcomes, or third-party interpretations of the content.

The Seminary agrees that no legal action will be pursued against Ekklesia EdTech or Dr. [Your Name] for voluntary support rendered.

6. Spirit of the Agreement

This partnership is entered into in a spirit of Christian humility, mutual respect, and shared dedication to the advancement of God's Word through sound teaching.

7. 508 Compliance

All instructional design support provided by Ekklesia EdTech is developed with consideration for Section 508 compliance to ensure accessibility for all learners, including those with disabilities.
